MILLINERY MATINEE

Store of Morsemann & Innes a Brilliant Scene Yesterday.

Feminine Wichita, with her love for millinery opening, has long been waiting for that of Morsemann, Innes & Co., which fully repaid her, for leaving but Lenton devotion to select her Easter headgear. All day yesterday the ladies flocked in and chatted and laughed as sweet music floated down upon the scene with its many lights and soft draperies. The decorations were dainty, with violet and blue as around around a delicate white border, baskets of roses and the fashionable fruit trimmings above the mirrors. Artistically arranged palms and smilax relieved the effect of the color scheme in the decoration. And the hats! All the expressive adjectives in the vocabulary were made use of as the ladies admired the exquisite creations. Miss Hacker, who is the head of this department, has become well known in her short stay here and was complimented highly on her beautiful selections and exquisite designs. They showed none of the extremes for which the early fashions are noted, but were in perfect taste and style. A very pretty and handsomely gowned model was the center of attraction as she displayed hats. One of the most admired Paris patterns was a Shepherdess in three shades of lavender with large roses of braid, half brim caught at the back with handsome scarf, decorated by Julia Dolan etc. Another attractive hat by Madame Pompadour was a large black poke facing of yellow roses, draped in chiffon, studded with Tuscany balls, with fall of beautiful lace over the roses and long ends of black velvet in the back. One by Viret, who is noted the world over for originality of style, was a white Neapolitan with ruching of white tulle around the edge. A large black bow was caught at the side with a Rhinestone buckle, a large spray of pink roses, foliage and berries.

A cadet blue Panama dotted with Tuscany balls, draped with cream lace over tulle and shaded pastel roses, by Madame Cotel, and a bonnet of soft grey satin braid crown bordered with velvet leaves and violets draped with squares of cream lace and ties of grey chiffon, modeled by Leuthric, was commented upon. Besides other patterns and a full line of misses' and children's hats in the pastel shades of braid, chiffon and flowers, was the charming Miss Hobbs in all her varying modes from grave to gay, and Anna Heid, whose personality spoke even from the robes. The beautiful sterling silver articles were another pleasing feature which added to the success of Morsemann, Innes & Co.'s millinery matinee.

Enjoyable Social Given by Rev. Dr. Slutz.

HOUSE WARMING PARTY

Given as a Surprise to Miss Cleveland.

The Rev. Dr. Slutz, pastor of the First M. E. church, gave a delightful church reception to the men of his church Friday night. The idea of a reception for men only originated with Mr. Slutz, and for three years he has given the reception annually, and the men have learned to look forward to the event with much pleasure. At the reception and social Friday evening seventy-six registered. There was a fine program, which was interspersed with selections by a male quartette and a ladies' quartette. HOUSE WARMING PARTY.
Last Friday evening Miss Cleveland of the High school was surprised in a manner that was a surprise. The senior class made a sudden and unexpected descent upon her new cottage on St. Francis avenue and proceeded to take forcible possession. As Miss Cleveland's cottage had just been completed, and she had just moved into it, the seniors could not resist the temptation to give the new home a thorough warming. They met at Mrs. Stophers on the corner of Elm and St. Francis streets, and then made a silent march to the new house. A handsome golden oak chair was taken along and left as a reminder of the occasion.

After Miss Cleveland's astonishment had ceased to be the principal amusement, the time was spent at games and in informal conversation. Later in the evening ice cream and cake were served and the seniors took their departure having succeeded in taking the vacant chill off the new house. Those present were: Misses Maud Swain, Etta Winters, Crete Mueller, Winnie Barnes, Cora Leichner, Mabel Shank, Stella Fursich, Clara Robinson, Anna Downing, Angela Leen, Maud Wren, Mabel Armour, Roxie Cowthorn, Frankie Graves, Gertrude McClung, Florence Sullivan, Minnie Rheinhardt, Mabel McKibben, Maud McKibben, Isabelle Brooks, Mattie Davis, Edith Brooks, Daisy Shinn, Francis Hutchinson, Mabel Hutchinson, Rena Randall, Messrs. LITTLE ALTA TAYLOR'S BIRTHDAY.

Little Alta Taylor, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Taylor, celebrated her fifth birthday anniversary Monday with a pretty party to her little friends. The little guests called with bright faces and glad hearts to spend the refreshments in play and frolic. There were refreshments, in which sweetmeats abounded, the colors being pink and white. Alta received a number of pretty presents and each guest was given a cake with a doll upon it to take home. The invited ones were: Nellie and Edwin Steffen, Lorraine Johnson, Esther Zedinger, Avis Hamilton, Robert Fuller, Florence Voss, Sammie Garsl, Forrest Williams, Lenora Steinbuhl, Paul Henrich, Roy Seal, Grandma Stephens.

T. Dorsey.

DANCE TO ITALIAN MUSIC.

A jolly crowd of the young folks who love to trip the light fantastic and listen to the sweet strains of an Italian orchestra, gave an informal dance at Garfield hall Friday evening. The music was lovely and the dance was very enjoyable. Those present were: Misses Genevra Jocelyn, Daisy Woods, Anna Brown, Maud Parks, Daisy Lynch, Laura Guegan, Myrtle Hinton, Helen Pratt, Marie Ashton, Lillian Lewis, Bird Gilmore, May Scott of Burlington, Iowa, Messrs. Roy Allen, Robert Dennis, Chas. Priestly, Jim Moriarty, Allen Davenport, Dr. Marshfield, Ed Guegan, Givie Hagney, Ben Anawalt, John Groffner, Mr. Hockaday, Walter Hess, Tom Kelo.

GAVE A "DIME FAIR."

One of the most enjoyable social events of the week was the "Dime Fair" given by the Y. P. S. C. E. No. 2 on Friday evening in the west parlors of the Presbyterian church. The parties were artistically arranged into three booths. In

THE FEAR OF HUNBUG.

Prevents Many People From Trying a Good Medicine.

Stomach troubles are so common and in most cases so obstinate to cure that people are apt to look with suspicion on any remedy claiming to be a radical, permanent cure for dyspepsia and indigestion. Many such pride themselves on their success in having been humbugged, especially in medicines.

This fear of being humbugged can be carried too far, so far, in fact, that many people suffer for years with weak digestion rather than risk a little time and money in faithfully testing the claims made of a preparation so reliable and universally used as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Now, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are vastly different in one important respect from ordinary proprietary medicines for the reason that they are not a secret patent medicine, no secret is made of their ingredients, but analysis shows them to contain the natural digestive ferments, pure aspepsin, the digestive acids, Golden Seal, bismuth, hydrastis and nux. They are not cathartic, neither do they act powerfully on any organ, but they cure indigestion on the common sense plan of digesting the food eaten thoroughly before it has time to ferment, sour and cause the mischief. This is the only secret of their success.

Cathartic pills never have and never can cure indigestion and stomach troubles, because they act entirely on the bowels, whereas the whole trouble is really in the stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets taken after meals digest the food. That is all there is to it. Food not digested or half digested is poison, as it creates gas, acidity, headache, palpitation of the heart, loss of flesh and appetite and many other troubles which are often called by some other name.

one of these booths was found many costly garments worn during the seventeenth century. In another were found paintings of wild flowers growing on the mountains of Switzerland. On the south was a booth containing a collection of articles representing famous paintings. There was also arranged a large fish pond which afforded much amusement during the evening. Games were played and lunch consisting of ice cream and cake was served by the committee, after which the young people departed voting the social committee of the Y. P. S. C. E. royal entertainers.

MISS TORRINGTON.

Miss Emily Torrington entertained informally the Philistines of Lewis Academy, Friday evening. Those present were: Misses Maud McCrackin, Mamie Mallow, Florence Mr. Tracy, Ellen Panning; Messrs. Small, Copeland, Braden.

GAVE A DINNER PARTY.

Mrs. J. C. Kinkadee of North Lawrence avenue gave a dinner party Thursday to a number of her lady friends. All declared it a most enjoyable occasion, well worthy of Mrs. Kinkadee's splendid hospitality and good taste.

COMPANY A HOP.

Company A, K. N. G., gave a military hop last Wednesday at the armory. There was not a large crowd present, but everybody had a good time. The boys have spent a good deal of time in making the arrangements for this dance and their efforts certainly met with success. This was the third dance that has been given by company A since the first of the year. Their last one will be on Thursday, April 12.

MEDAL CONTEST.

Mrs. Hathaway's W. C. T. U. medal contest at the South Emporia M. E. church Tuesday evening was fully up to the standard of excellence in the matter of value culture raised by that lady. The contestants were: Misses Rose, Scott, Guthrie and Marks, Mr. Carter and Mrs. Martindale, the medal being won by Mr. Carter. A musical contest between two quartettes—Messrs Lee and Clem Jones, Misses Calhoun and Stubbs, on one side, and Messrs. Young and Carter, and Misses Gladys Hathaway and Linnie Goodall, on the other, was decided in favor of the last named quartette. Miss Chambers presided at the organ. These entertainments are becoming very popular under Mrs. Hathaway's management.

MISS STARK.

Miss Bertha Stark entertained a number of ladies at her rooms in the Sedgwick block last Wednesday. Miss Stark is a delightful hostess and with the able assistance of Miss Laura Shafer she made the afternoon pass only too quickly. A dainty luncheon was served during the latter part of the afternoon, and red carnations were the favors. The guests were Mrs. Foster Stark, Mrs. Charlie Kenworthy, Mrs. Mel Martin of Winfield, and Misses Blakely, Edith Hoover, Rebecca Cook, Kate Allison, Laura Shafer, Bertha Stark and little Miss Mildred Martin.

DANCING PARTY.

The most enjoyable affair of the season was the dancing party given by the Misses Ford in the Sedgwick Music Hall Friday night. The hall was beautifully decorated and brilliantly lighted, and as the dancers glided over the floor to the sweet strains of Professor Blome's orchestra, it presented a fairy-like scene long to be remembered by those who attended.

W. R. C. BOX SOCIAL.

The Woman's Relief Corps entertained a box social last Friday evening—a success in all respects, and they

A FEW FACTS

About the New Catarrh Cure.

The new Catarrh Cure is a new departure in so-called catarrh cures, because it actually cures, and is not merely a temporary relief.

The new Catarrh Cure is not a saline, ointment, powder nor liquid, but a pleasant tasting tablet containing the best specific for catarrh in a concentrated, convenient form.

The old style of catarrh salves and ointments are greasy, dirty and inconvenient at the best; the new preparation being in tablet form is always clean and convenient.

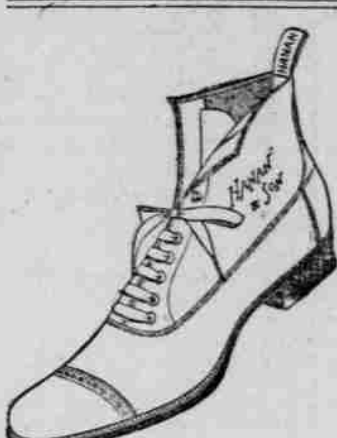

The new Catarrh Cure is superior to Catarrh powders because it is a scientific fact that many Catarrh powders contain cocaine.

The new Catarrh Cure is called Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, a wholesome combination of blood root, beachwood tar, ginseng and other antiseptics, and cures by its action upon the blood and mucous membrane, the only rational treatment for catarrhal trouble.

You do not have to draw upon your imagination to discover whether you are getting benefit from Stuart's Catarrh Tablets; improvements and relief are apparent from the first tablet taken. All druggists sell and recommend them. They cost but 50 cents for full-sized packages, and any catarrh sufferer who has wasted time and money on sprays, salves and powders, will appreciate to the full the merit of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.
